Promoting the Advancement of the Sport of Purebred Dogs

Mission Statement: To promote the ownership and sport of purebred dogs and breeding for type and function. We act as advocates for the purebred dog as a family companion, to advance canine health and well being, work to protect the rights of all dog owners, and promote responsible dog ownership.

Objective: To advance the study, breeding, exhibiting, running and maintenance of purebred dogs. To encourage and support dog shows, obedience and agility training trials.

Membership: Membership is open to anyone who is in good standing with the American Kennel Club (AKC) and is interested in promoting the sport of purebred dogs. Dog ownership is not necessary to become a member. General membership meetings are held monthly. Those interested in joining must complete the membership application, pay the required yearly dues, and be voted in by the general membership in attendance at the applicant's third meeting. Membership dues will not be accepted until you are voted in as a member. For meeting information, please see our website at www.indianheadkennelclub.org

To join, please complete this form and return to the Indianhead Kennel Club (IKC) Membership Chairperson listed below:
